PRESS STATEMENT

Eid al-Fitr Message

On the solemn and joyous occasion of Eid al-Fitr, I extend my warmest greetings and heartfelt felicitations to all Muslims in Ghana and across the world. This sacred celebration, marking the successful completion of the holy month of Ramadan, is a time for reflection, spiritual renewal, and reaffirmation of our commitment to the enduring values of compassion, justice, and social responsibility.

Eid al-Fitr calls upon us to strengthen the bonds of unity, harmony, and mutual respect that underpin our national cohesion. It is an occasion to promote understanding, peace, and solidarity within our communities, and to reflect on our shared responsibilities towards building a prosperous and inclusive nation.

As we partake in this season of gratitude and thanksgiving, I urge all Muslims to celebrate safely, embrace the principles of tolerance, and contribute meaningfully to the well-being of their families, communities, and society at large.

On behalf of the Ministry of Local Government, Chieftaincy and Religious Affairs, I pray that Allah Almighty blesses our nation with peace, harmony, and continued progress. I wish all Muslims a blessed, joyous, and memorable Eid al-Fitr.

HON. AHMED IBRAHIM (MP)
